Expert services to configure, manage, and monitor your network.

iYogi Certified Technicians will remotely connect multiple computers for sharing printers, documents, music files, and pictures. Our tech experts can perform a 24/7 network monitoring in order to identify system bottlenecks before they actually lead to any network problem. We use network monitoring tools and advanced technologies like Windows® Management Instrumentation and Simple Network Monitoring Protocol.

With the use of iYogi's network monitoring process; you can easily put into practice some policies throughout your information technology environment. You will be notified by its engineers when your server goes down; any network problem is detected, security threat encountered, or any network problem is detected.

Configure wireless router and Internet sharing across computers while enabling firewall for security & protection. Avail instant access to award winning service, 24/7, at an affordable flat-rate.
