Tech Support for the Setup and Installation of Routers.

$19<sup>99</sup> Only

Get your router configured remotely and stay focused on your business.

iYogi provides expert assistance to setup, install and configure any type of router on your PC. Our tech experts can configure your router as per your needs and requirements. We are experts in checking the already installed firmware and resolving compatibility issues, etc. Our Certified Technicians can also fix errors related to slow downloading due to wireless interference or problems in detecting the router's signal.

No matter what your router is being used for - VoIP, Internet services, or another application - you will have the confidence of knowing your data equipment is working properly.

Call iYogi and we can personalize the settings of your router to maximize productivity.
